

Lead and Copper Rule 101. Kira Smith, P.E., USEPA. Drinking Water Protection Division within the Office of Ground Water and Drinking Water.

This presentation provides an overview of lead and copper in drinking water, including health effects, sources, and regulatory background. It will also cover the components of the Federal Lead and Copper Rule, including sampling, corrosion control, lead service line replacement, and public education.